Thank you for participating in Habitat for Humanity's HOME TEAM HUDDLE! It's because of generous, community-minded people like you that we're able to do what we do! We hope that you'll spread the word about this event, so that even more people will "huddle up" for Habitat next Super Sunday!

In appreciation of your participation, we're making all party hosts and guests (with the exception of Habitat staff!) eligible for an NFL weekend getaway next season. We'll select one lucky person at random to receive two roundtrip airfares to an NFL city, hotel accommodations and two tickets to the game. Just complete the information below to get yourself into the mix. PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY! Good luck!!!
